The Ladies Aid of Zion Baptist will sponsor a special Mother's Day program this Sunday morning at 11 a.m.

St. Luke

Members and visiting friends were present to enjoy an impressive and up lifting message given by the pastor of the St. Luke Baptist Church on Sunday, May 2. The adult choir no. 1 gave the music. Mrs. Josephine Nowlin was at the piano. Rev. McLaughlin spoke from the subject, "The Sacred Duty of Parents." Since it proceeds Mother's Day this was well taken by the listeners. The offering was great.

The St. Luke Senior Usher staff was present at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church Sunday evening at 7 to serve in the 27th anniversary of the Usher Board. Rev. Cable gave the message. The program was enjoyed.

A large crowd attended the farewell sermon of the Rev. James Franklin, Jr. at the Baptist Union Church last Sunday in Buckingham. Mr. and Mrs. James Franklin attended the service at Baptist Union also last Sunday to hear their son deliver his farewell message. The Rev. Franklin has been called as pastor of the Mount Zion Baptist Church in Bluefield, W. Va. Rev. Franklin's final message was "There is a Day Coming". All present enjoyed the message. Mrs. Magnola Franklin's sister, Mrs. Alice Brown of Brooklyn, N.Y., who has been on the sick list is improving nicely. We are happy to report that Mrs. Ora Smith is improving.

On Sunday at 3 p.m. at the home of a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burns, and other children of Mrs. Esther Callaham, gave a delightful dinner party honoring their mother's birthday. Mrs. Esher M. Callaham was so beautifully dressed for the occasion and had an enjoyable evening with her children, grandchildren and many friends. The bountiful amount of food was very appetizing and Mrs. Callaham received lovely gifts of items and money. Mrs. Sadie Scott, a relative, baked a four tiered cake and decorated it so beautiful for the occasion. This is so characteristic of Mrs. Scott.

On Monday evening at 7 the Bible Institute will meet at the Falling River Elementary School. Everyone is invited to please come and give your moral support to make this occasion a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Canada are very sorry to hear of the passing of Mr. George Rucker and extend sympathy to the family of Concord.

After spending a little time at the home for the week end Mrs. L. M. Canada has returned to her duties in Appomattox.

Everyone is re relieved to have had such a refreshing rain.

"Blessings, yes we have so many - we could never name them all; So let's lift our hearts in gladness - For God's favors great and small" - Sarver

High on the list of blessings this writer has received is the blessing of a wonderful mother. On this Mother's Day I'd like to say thank you to my mother, Mrs. Vinia Kress, and "I love you, Mom!" How about your Mom? Have you told her lately what she means to you? Remember her on her special day!

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Wooten, Miss Nellie Bryant visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Gunter on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hodge and son, Steven, recently spent some time in Delton, S.C. While there they attended a Farm Antique Auction. Enroute home they spent the day at Myrtle Beach. They spent last Sunday touring the Roanoke area.

Joe Johnson and Frank Ellis, of Elm City, N.C., were guests of the former's parents over the week end. They also visited in the P. M. Gunter home along with Mrs. Virna Kress and Mrs. Hazel Johnson.

Mrs. Norma Page and sons and Mrs. Carolyn Baldwin and sons, visited Mrs. Gertrude Page and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crawford in Lynchburg on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Smith and Julie, of New Canton, visited Mrs. Smith's parents and grandparents in Appomattox on Sunday.

Jordan

All present enjoyed the cutting of the Gospel Cake that was presented Sunday night by Mrs. Dorothy Turner and Mrs. Ovella Austin. Ladies from neighboring churches took part in the program. Rev. R. Q. Lawing was the speaker for the evening and the Cannon Senior Choir Sung.

We would like to thank Mrs. Dorothy Turner and Mrs. Hilda Jones for the fine job they did collecting money for the Cancer Fund and a special thanks to all who contributed to this worthy cause.

The Gospel Harmonettes would like to thank everyone who supported them in helping make the Sensational Nightengales a success on last Sunday night.

Remember the sick and shut-in with prayers and visits.

MRS. JERRY NORRIS SMALL
the former Miss Donna Lynn Stanley

Wed In Afternoon Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Donna Lynn Stanley to Jerry Norris Small took place Saturday afternoon, May 1, at 3 o'clock at Falling River Country Club.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Stanley of Appomattox. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Glenn V. Small of Trinity, N.C. and the late Mr. Small.

The Rev. Luther C. Harris, pastor of Mount Zion United Methodist Church, Trinity, N.C., officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents.

She wore a gown fashioned of white organza and re-embroidered Chantilly lace. The empire bodice was finished with a high Victorian lace neckline and long Bishop sleeves into a lace cuff with a ruffle or organza falling over the hand. Bands of lace were appliqued on the bodice with a ruffle or organza cascading over the shoulders. Wide bands of lace fell from the waistline to the hemline of the floor length skirt, with lace and a ruffle finishing the hemline. Her veil was a fingertip mantilla of illusion edged with lace.

Mrs. Ronald W. Gowin of Appomattox, served as Matron of Honor. She wore a slipper length gown of yellow floral over matching bridal taffeta. The bodice was featured with a high round, ruffled neckline and long sheer sleeves gathered at the wrists forming self ruffles. The deep ruffled skirt was softly gathered to the bodice above the normal waistline and featured a white satin ribbon which tied in the back and formed flowing streamers. She carried long stem yellow roses.

Junior bridesmaids were Cheryl Dawn Small, daughter of the bridegroom of Thomasville, N.C., and Eve Renee Thomas, cousin of the bride of Appomattox. They were dresses of whtie angel skin with yellow satin which tied in the back and formed flowing streamers. They were fashioned similar to that of the honor attendant. They carried a long stem yellow rose.

Clayton Briles of Trinity, N.C., served as best man. The only usher was Tommy Ray Stanley, brother of the bride.

Miss Patsy Hughes and Miss Kathy Johnson provided a program of nupital music.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with a reception at the club.

Assisting were Mrs. Clayton Briles, Mrs. Kenneth Sumner, Mrs. Bobby Walker, sisters of the bridegroom; Mrs. Murrell Thomas and Mrs. Ray Almond, aunts of the bride; and Mrs. Bookie Johnson, Mrs. Steve Almond and Mrs. Jimmy Pierce.

Mrs. Mildred Richardson served as director for the wedding. At the bride's book were Miss Cindy Almond, Miss Lou Ann Briles, and Miss Sue Thomas.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox County High School and attends Central Virginia Community College. She is employed at Babcock & Wilcox.

The groom is a graduate of Trinity High School and attended Ashmore Business College and Randolph Technical Institute, Thomasville, N.C. He is employed at Transmark Operations.

After a southern wedding trip the couple will make their home in Spout Spring.

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Hamlett of Red House announce the engagement of their daughter, Vicki Holt Hamlett, to William Christopher Hubbard, Jr., son of Mrs. William C. Hubbard, Sr. and the late Mr. Hubbard of Appomattox.

The wedding will be an event of June 26, 1976 at 2 p.m. in Liberty Baptist Church in Appomattox.

Although no invitations will be sent, friends, relatives are invited to attend.
